DEFENDANTS' ANSWERS AND OBJECTIONS
TO PLAINTIFF'S SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Defendant's ("Locals") answer and object as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

2. Defendants object generally to plaintiff's interrogatories to the extent that an interrogatory seeks information subject to the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or otherwise privileged information.
3. Defendants object generally to plaintiff's interrogatories to the extent that an interrogatory seeks information that will not be admissible at trial, is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, or otherwise seeks information beyond the scope of justified discovery.

4. Defendants object generally to plaintiff's interrogatories to the extent that an interrogatory is vague, argumentative, ambiguous, or assumes an incorrect legal premise.

5. Defendants object generally to plaintiff's interrogatories to the extent an interrogatory is overbroad, unduly burdensome, vexatious or harassing.

6. Defendants object generally to plaintiff's interrogatories to the extent an interrogatory seeks confidential personal information. If such personal information is arguably discoverable, defendants will provide it subject to mutually agreeable confidentiality stipulation.
